Alvin and Laurie provide theological education and leadership training at the Central American Theological Seminary (SETECA). After 10 years of directing the online training curriculum, they have relocated back to Guatemala for a more hands on direction of the programs. The Thompsons are equipping, encouraging and empowering the pastors throughout South America to do the work of the Gospel.

Michael and Darilyn Batterman

Dorm parents and Bible teachers

Rift Valley Academy, Kenya

SIM

www.simusa.org

This is their 7th year as dorm parents; currently they have 12 girls from several different countries. Praise God that Darilyn recently had the opportunity to lead 2 of their dorm girls to accept Christ as Savior. Darilyn writes, “The eternal destinies of kids at RVA as well as the people whom their parents serve are the reason we are here. We find great joy in being able to play a part in our precious Lord’s master plan.”

Kim and Jenny Garrity

Evangelism and Leadership Development

Kandern, Germany

Greater Europe Mission (GEM)

www.gemission.org

Kim and Jenny lead mission teams throughout Europe. In 2013 Kim led teams to build camps in Serbia and Croatia, house building in Romania, Gospel outreach during Tour de France, refugee work in Southern Europe and serving at a camp in France. Jenny is involved in training refugee women in Southern Europe marketable skills.

This year plans include an outreach in Marseille France, remodeling a church in Scotland, and continued work with Farsi-speaking immigrants.

Stu and Hilary Lynch

Discipleship, Church Ministry,

& Equipping Church Planters

Birmingham, England

Asian Access partnering with ReachGlobal

www.asianaccess.org

The Lynches have transitioned into a ministry partnership with ReachGlobal, the church-planting arm of the Evangelical Free Church in America. They work with a variety of outreach ministries through the auspices of a local church, teaching English to immigrants, and engaging in relational evangelism and discipleship. Stu is also involved in training and equipping a new generation of church planters in England.

Brad and Susan McFarlane

Assisting Bible translation through aviation

Papua, Indonesia

Wycliffe Bible Translators

www.wycliffe.org

The McFarlanes’ aviation ministry provides access to the remotest locations as they transport missionaries, Bibles, medical supplies and relief aid. Brad recently wrote: “We made 7 stops in all that day, and our passengers and cargo included a translation team, New Testaments, school kids, a sick child, a screaming child, and a screaming pig.”
